5 I think the pay &allowances of officers deputed for Excise duty may continue to be borne by their substantive Depts as hitherto. There seems to be no necessity to sanction any reappn on account of the Comptr.
In the case of the Dy Collr however & in a similar case of any officer specially deputed for the purpose for a short period the Excise budget should legitimately bear the charge

Subject or order.

The following points are raised for consideration in connection with the Financial Secretary's opinion :—

(1) If the pay of all the officers placed on special duty while time for Exhn work and all the charges to be incurred by them, are to be debited to the Exhn, the clerks deputed for Exhn work from the General Offices also come within that category and the G.O. of 25th Septr 1907 passed in connection with the Fin. Branch, requires modification.

(2) It is not possible to estimate the cost to be incurred for meeting the pay & T.A. of officers to be deputed for the Exhn, at the time of framing the budget Estimates of the Exhn, as the deputation of the men depends on the exigencies of the occasion. Consequently Para 7 the exact cost can only be calculated after the Exhibition is over) —

(3) Whether the arrangement proposed by the Financial Secretary should be given effect to in connection with the Exhibition of 1913, or only

8. The Financial Secy's view is no doubt correct in principle, but there will be difficulties in applying it next year. ~~Till now~~ In previous years the special formal deputation of an officer to work as Secy of the Exhibition was avoided as the Secy was an officer employed at Mysore & some more or less satisfactory arrangements — which involved no extra cost — could be made for his substantive work being looked after while he was busy with the Exhbn. Next year, however, such an arrangement became impossible & it was necessary to depute an officer from the Rev Dept to work as wholetime Secy. It is difficult to find money out of the sanctioned Exhbn budget to meet his pay & if such a debit is necessary for must either reappropriate from some other main head of the budget or allow the excess expenditure.

9. The placing of an extra amildar on Probation

~~placed~~ on Special Duty for a short time has followed the practice in previous years & their pay may as usual be charged to their Substantive Dept.

10. It is under consideration to make other arrangements for the charge of the Exhibition from the next year & when such arrangements are made & the Exhibn budget prepared the points to be urged by the Fin Secy may be borne in mind.
